Dear Dr. Jones,

I am writing as a follow-up to a violation that occurred in your school's football program (s). The violation is for conducting off-season skill development sessions during an established dead period (NCHSAA Handbook Policy 2.2.15).

In accordance with NCHSAA Handbook policy, the penalty for this violation is $400.00. In addition, the NCHSAA accepts the self-imposed sanctions imposed by Dr. Jones, the head coach is reprimanded, and the football program is placed on probation for one (1) calendar year (May 23, 2020).

Please note that pursuant to NCHSAA Bylaw Section VIII (p.17 of the Handbook 2018-19 Edition) the member school may appeal in writing (via fax or email) to the NCHSAA Executive Committee within two (2) working days of notification of the decision (the time and date of this letter sent via email). Failure to appeal in writing during this time frame will waive any appeal rights and this decision will be final.

Upon receipt of your check in the amount of $400.00, we will report to the NCHSAA Board of Directors that this matter has been satisfactorily resolved.

Sincerely,

Que Tucker
